PARENT COMMITMENT

"Train the young in the way they should go; even when old, they will not swerve from it."

– Proverbs 22:6

"Parents, bring your children up with the training and instruction of the Lord."

– Ephesians 6:4b

As a Catholic parent (guardian), I am fully committed to helping my child grow in the love of the sacraments (and to helping my child prepare for receiving the sacraments – as applicable). By which my child will be more bound to the Catholic Church, and by which my child will be enriched with the blessings and the gifts that will help my child become a witness for Jesus Christ our Lord, our God and our Savior.

As a parent (guardian) of a catechetical student, I promise the following:

- I will approach my child's catechetical journey with an open mind and open heart.
- I will attend Sunday (Saturday vigil) Mass with my child, and on all holy days of obligation.
- I will attend and will fully participate in all meetings and sessions requiring parent attendance.
- I will attend and will fully participate in student focused Reconciliation and Adoration events.
- I will encourage respect for the catechetical teams and appreciation for their efforts.
- I will encourage respect for all catechetical students, especially for my child's cohort.
- I will volunteer my talents and gifts within the church community – as an example to my child.
- I will commit to prayer with my child, praying especially for growth in faith, hope, and love.
- I will reprioritize commitments that obstruct my child's full participation.
- I will enlist the help of another responsible adult whenever I can't provide for any of the above promises.

(Please discuss each of the above promises with your witnessing child in the signature section.) As I make these promises, I ask God to give me the grace to be open to his plans for my family – plans he reveals to me in prayer, in my talents and aspirations, and in the encouragement of all who know and love me. I place myself in the loving embrace of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in asking for help in fulfilling this commitment.
